CLEAN SWEEP FOR MILLER.

HAS FIVE MOUNTS AT BRIGHTON BEACH AND ALL ARE WINNERS.

His Jubilant Followers Strip the Ring of Ready Money-Salvidere Wins Brighton Junior Stakes -Hylas Scores in Brighton Steeplechase.

New York, July 28 .-- For the followers of Walter Miller, and they are legend, this was a great day at Brighton Beach. This jockey idol of today won each of the five races in which he had mounts. Of course not all of the 30,000 persons who packed the course by the seaside on this faultless afternoon with its attractive card of seven races, embracing three stakes and carrying a total of $25,900 in added money, were hero worshipers, but there were enough of them to take away practically all the ready money in circulation in the ring. His cohorts were intensely recklessly loyal throughout the afternoon and almost indescribable scenes of rejoicing followed each victory.

The lightweight inaugurated the day with an unexpected victory on Gold Lady at profitable odds. In the race following he had no mount and the market was stagnant. With Miller on Content in the Seashore Handicap, his following ignored the other starters, no matter what their class or pretentions, and went to Woodford Clay's filly. The result was hardly ever in doubt, even to the most superficial observers, Content winning with supreme superficial observers, Content winning with supreme case and at lucrative odds.

Miller, however, reached the climax of achievement with the victory of the outsider Salvidere in the rich Brighton Junior Stakes, incidentally defeating the formidable Keene trio—Ballot, Peter Pan and Super-man—which were held at prohibitive odds in the betting. It was conceded to be a race between utilionaires, Messrs. Keene, Belmont and Hitchcock. It was a waterloo for the followers of favorites. It is said that the loss of one clubhouse commission alone approximated $60,000. There were severa $20,000 wagers and many $10,000 ones. Despite the fact that two outsiders ran one, two, the layers broke no more than even. The unsophisticated and confiding small bettors were the beneficiaries.

Again there was a lull. Such an affair as a steeplechase in which Miller did not figure had no interest for the proletariat, notwithstanding it was the Brighton Steeplechase with $5,000 added. Nannie Hodge came next on the program and with Miller on her back, they could see nothing else in the race with the result that the Rossington mare was with the result that the kossington mare was backed down to an absurdly short price, but she won and no kick was coming. On The Clown it was like taking candy from a baby. The little jockey went right about his business with this speedy, but fainthearted animal and jollied him

There never was a day like this. The cashiers were worked to death paying off winning bets to willer's adherents and some of them had not finished settling on The Clown at 6 o'clock in the evening.

The steeplechase was the best of the present required and reputed with incident and spectacle.

meeting and replete with incident and spectacle. To Ray's nerve was due the victory of Hylas. For the first three-quarters of the closing mile it was one of the fiercest struggles ever witne affair of this kind.

DE ORO WINS THE HAMILTON STAKES.

Buffalo, N. Y., July 28.—The half holiday, coupled with the running of the Hamilton Stakes, drew a crowd to Fort Erie today that exceeded the attendance of Derby Day. The nine books that cut in for the day had no complaint of a lack of business. The stake feature was named in honor of the City of Hamilton and the people of that Canadian city were out in full force. De Oro, running in the colors of Samuel T. White, the Chicago turfman, rried away the plum with My Bes Glimmer third. The colt has been broken of his plunging and bucking habits and he went to th post today as quietly as a kitten.

William Gannon, owner of Edward Wilder, was fined $25 today. Gannon sent the colt to the post with whip, spurs and blinkers. Heretofore his equipment had been a whip only.

PURELY A NEWSPAPER CANARD.

Cincinnati, O., July 28.—Speaking of future racing at Louisville, John Hachmeister, representing neister, representing the Cella-Condon interests at Douglas Park, stated that the rumor that there was trouble brewing at the Falls City between the racing interests there is pure moonshine. He also said that the Douglas Park management will request the State Racing Commission to grant them dates to follow Latonia

JOHN CARROLL VICTORIOUS IN HANDICAP.

Cincinnati, O., July 28.-An excellent cardespecially good one for speculative purposes—to-gether with pleasant weather, attracted an unusually big holiday crowd to Latonia today. The twenty books did a big busifiess. John Carroll, named both books did a big business. John Carroli, named both for the mile handicap and the condition race at a mile, was withdrawn from the latter and won the handicap, backed from 7 to 10 to 3 to 5. His impost was 122 pounds and he was conceding actual weight to such speedy ones as Braden, Major T. J. Carson, Militades and John L. Inglis. The Corrigan colt had his work cut out for him in the early part of the journey and was badly pocketed for a short time on the upper turn. When Nicol found clear sailing for him in the stretch, however, he picked up his horses under a drive and was going away at the end. T. P. Hayes ex P. Hayes executed one of his famous coup with Binondo in the fifth race. Some slates posted four and five to one against the Hayes colt at the opening, but little or nothing was taken at these figures. Much, however, was bet at three's and the best to be had at post time was 7 to 5. The col won easily from Ovelando and put up a splendie performance

Jockey Nicol began the day auspiciously, landing his first two mounts, Friction and Elastic, both favorites, winners by good margins. He also won on John Carroll, but was left at the post on Miss Doyle, because of her action in bolting to the outer fence when the barrier was released. She was the best backed horse during the afternoon, with the exception of Binondo.

In the first of the mile and a quarter races Hugh In the first of the mile and a quarter races Hugh. McCarren came near winning with a long shot when his Yachting Girl was beaten a head in a hard stretch drive by Juba, another outsider. Cotillion, at 30 to 1, the same odds at which she won recently, took the final race from Josie's Jewel by a small margin.

C. C. McCafferty had to pay $300 to retain Elastic, the amount he was bid up over his entered price of $700

Alex Monroe, which started in the opening race, acted fractiously at the post and finally bolted to the outside fence, throwing his rider and running away into the stable yards. He was caught, brought back to the post and remounted. R. Wedderstrand, who rode him, had his leg slightly bruised by the

THE CLOSING WEEK AT BRIGHTON BEACH.

The midsummer meeting of the Brighton Beach Racing Association will come to an end next Satur-day afternoon. On the whole it has been a reasonday afternoon. On the whole it has been a reasonably satisfactory meeting in respect to the average quality of racing and remarkably successful financially. Some interesting stakes stud the program of the coming week. The Glen Cove Handicap, for three-year-olds, a dash of three-quarters of a mile, is the stake feature of Monday. The list of probable starters appears elsewhere in this issue and should prove an interesting affair. The Nautiprobable starters appears elsewhere in this issue and should prove an interesting affair. The Nautilus Stakes will be run Tuesday. It is a selling dash of a mile and a sixteenth. Glorifier, Belmere, Red Friar, Brancas, Right Royal, Rapid Water, Merry Lark, Bull's Eye, Garnish, First Mason, Tyron, The Picket, Inquisitor, James Reddick and Ballotta being prominent in the list of good horses entered in the comparatively unimportant stake. The Sunshine Stakes, for two-year-olds, will be the central attraction of Wednesday's racing. It is at five and a half furlongs and of its nominations, Fountainblue, Don Enrique, Rosemount, Paumonok, Frank Gill, Kentucky Beau, George S. Davis, Oran, Sewell, Bat Masterson, Adoration, Saracenesca, McCarter and Sir Toddington have excellent racing credentials. There is material for a corking racing credentials. There is material for a corking good race here.

Thursday afternoon will be marked by the decision of the important Invincible Handicap—its first running. It has $7,500 added and is a dash of a mile ning. It has $7,500 added and is a dash of a mile and a quarter and those from which the field of starters will come appear to be Ram's, Horn, 124; Tokalon, 118; Cairngorm, 112; Glorifier, 111; Accountant, 109; Merry Lark, 109; Dandellon, 106; Graziallo, 106; Inquisitor, 104; Dolly Spanker, 103; Von Tromp, 104; Bad News, 104; Oxford, 102; Bull's Eye, 102; Bohemian, 102; Phil Finch, 105; Brancas, 100; Coy Maid, 95; Confederate, 95, and Miss Crawford, 98. With ten starters this race will be worth $10,000 net to the winner, so it falls little short of the importance attaching to the great handicaps already decided and will be fully great handicaps already decided and will be fully as hotly contested. The last two stakes of the meeting will be run off next Saturday. They are the Winged Foot Handicap, for two-year-olds, at three-quarters of a mile, and the $15,000 Brighton Derby. Some very good two-year-olds are in th Winged Foot including Don Enrique, Rosemount, Okenite, Ethon, Salvidere, Penarris, Zal, Yowric, Gretna Green, Antrim, Master Lester, Saracenesca McCarter, Oran, Norfolk, Red River, Glamor, Re-miss and The Wrestler. The Brighton Derby is over a mile and a half course and the probable contestants are Accountant, Belmere, Samson, Albert F., Bohemian, Kuroki, Flimnap and possibly Perverse and The Quail. If the two last named start against Accountant there will be some ex-

TRAINER AND JOCKEY O'NEILL.

After trainer Frank O'Neill had won his first at Brighton Beach Thursday, starter Dade talked of jockey Frank O'Neill with authoritative interest. He said: "I sent the boy away for his first winning mount. It was on Hottentot in the Club Members' Handicap at the Fair Grounds in St. Louis, in June, 1901.

"I was patrol judge at the Fair Grounds," he continued, "and I heard F. W. Holtgrewe, the horse's owner, say the day before the race, that he would have to scratch Hottentot on account of not being able to get a boy to ride him, and that he felt pretty badly about it as he thought the colt had a good chance. I told him that there was no use to do that as he could get a lad I knew. I had Frank O'Neill in mind. Hottentot was entered to carry ninety-three pounds, and O'Neill was just about that weight. He had ridden a few races about that weight. He had rever won, I could tell he was a sharp kid and would make a good jockey. So I boosted him to Holtgrewe, with the result that he got the mount and rode a splendid race. Hottentot ran a fine race and led all the way."

INVINCIBLE HANDICAP WEIGHTS.

When the Coney Island Jockey Club establish the Commonwealth Hanidcap as a sequel to the Suburban, the experiment proved so successful and popular that the other three great racing organizations, The Westchester Racing Association, Brooklyn Jockey Club and Brighton Beach Racing Association at once followed its excellent example, the Brighton Beach Racing Association founding the Invincible Handicap. This race will be run for the first time next Thursday afternoon. It is a dash of a mile and a quarter and the entries and weights

MAY ENTER SUIT FOR DAMAGES.

Lexington, Ky., July 28.—Attorney John R. Allen has gone to England in the interest of the estate of Charles F. McMcekin. Suit may be filed against the railroad company for damages because of the killing of Mr. McMeekin in the wreck at Salisbury July 1. By his will, which has been made public here, Mr. McMeekin left his estate of about $75,000 July 1. to Mrs. McMeekin. He directs that all of his horses sold and that one-half of the proceeds be invested

KINGS TO VISIT DONCASTER.

"It has been definitely decided," says the London Sporting Life, "that King Alfonso will accompany King Edward to Doneaster. Lord Savile will have the honor of entertaining the Royal pair, and a brilliant party will be invited to meet them. Their Majesties will attend the races on Tuesday, Wednesday and Friday, September 10, 11 and 12."

HILL, NOT MACKAY, OWNS DISADVANTAGE.

The report sent out from Lexington that C. H. Mackay had purchased Disadvantage is incorrect. The mare was bought by Charles F. Hill, manager of Mr. Mackay's Kingston Stud, and was bred to the Hanover stallion Sanders, both horse and mare being owned by Mr. Hill.

PATCHOGUE STABLE TO RACE AT HAVANA.

William Du Bois, owner of the Patchogue Stable has decided to send his horses to Havana for the race meeting that will be held there next winter.

ANSWERS TO QUERIES.

[Communications without names and addresse of senders will not be answered or noticed.]

J. McK., Milwaukee, Wis. There is only one horse on the turf named Orly.

W. B., Virden, Ill. The parlay lost. Such bets tand until all the horses named run or are scratched.

F. C. B., Chicago. The prices were correctly given. The judges betting slip gave the opening price at 3 to 2.

A. H. S., Latonia, Ky. Ossian was a bay horse, by Salvator—Music, Salvator was a French-bred horse. Ossian won the St. Leger of 1883.

J. S. W., St. Louis, Mo. Little Scout has no stake engagements at Brighton Beach or Saratoga, but may be engaged at meetings to come later on Eli D., Memphis, Tenn. Your wager on Scotch Plume was a loser on the straight bet and a draw on the place bet, there being no separate place betting. T. V. D., East St. Louis, Ill. Unless there was an understanding to the contrary the "if coming" bets were void for the reason that there was not enough money to execute either.

M. K. C., St. Louis, Mo. Your wager is so ob scurely worded that it is difficult to decide whether you won or lost If the Ingolthrift bet was to go first it was a winner and there was no action to Dr. Hart because his race came first. If bet was to attach to whichever race was first run Winner—Ch. c, by Belvidere—Sallie of Navare (trained by J. E. Madden).

Went to post at 3:50. At post 4 minutes. Start fair. Won easily; second driving: third the same. Salvidere broke slowly, but got into forward contention in a jiffy, was then reserved until on the last turn, where he drew out like a streak and won as his rider pleased. Chaseaway, after trailing for part of the journey, closed up rapidly in the last half and with a rush took second place easily. Superman, pocketed on the inside for the first half, closed up well in the stretch. Rosemount forced a terrific pace, but failed to stay. Peter Pan essayed to head the pacemaker in the first half, but tired as if short. Ballot quit badly after running forwardly to the stretch, but was shut off at the start and knocked far back, then closed a big gap.

Scratched—630/127Don Enrique, 112; 63794*Aletheuo, 112.

Winner—B. g. by Meddler—Forget (trained by C. Kiernan).

Went to post at 4:25. At post 1 minute. Start good. Won easily; second driving. Hylas maintained nearest pursuit of the pacemaker from the start, blundered seriously over the second from the last jump, but made a miraculous recovery and, when Jimmy Lane fell, came away and won off by himself. Delcanta was sent out to force the pace, which he did to excess and, tiring badly at the end, was unable to withstand Hylas' challenge, but was best and should have won. Kernel loomed up well at the end of a mile and a half and then gave way again. Jimmy Lane was given a bad ride and used excessively in the middle half, but was a keen contender when he fell a half mile from the finish.

Went to post at 4:50. At post 2 minutes. Start fair. Won easily; second the same; third driving. Namie Hodge outbroke the others, but was taken back and ridden a waiting race to the last turn, where she moved up and challenged Comedierne after a long stretch effort, coming away decisively right at the end. Comedienne, also reserved early dashed into the lead on the last turn, but succumbed finally under a weak ride and was best. Ren Hodder maintained a good position from the start, finishing with a fast stretch sprint and ran a cracking good race. Far West began slowly and was hopelessly in the rear for the first half, but made up a lot of ground in the last quarter. Cederstrome steadily improved his position. Oyama showed dazzling and unexpected early speed, but failed to stay and ran like a sulker. Creasina was badly messed about. THE ART OF WINNING.

This remarkable book contains everything that is worth knowing and valuable as an aid to successful turf speculation, including a new, easy, quick, yet selentific, method of handleapping, the greatest winner picker of the age; also, several systems, new and original and the nearest approach to system perfection. The man operating them REALLY WINS, and an insignificant capital often proves sufficient. System No. 3, played upon a very small basis, recently won, in seven months, 34,860, and REQUIRED A CAPITAL OF ONLY FIVE DOLLARS. Such cases are numerous System No. 1 caused a man to be BARRED from many New York poolrooms, because of his wonderful winnings. Nothing in the book is old. It is simply chock full of NEW IDEAS, demonstrating the biggest of moneymakers. By following its directions you may get back every dollar you ever lost on the turf, and THEN GO ON AND WIN ALL THE MONEY YOU WANT. The question is not WHETHER you will win, but HOW MUCH you desire to win. Critics and delighted nurchasers alike are praising these same NEW IDEAS. Every one is enthusiastic. Even J. S. A. Maedonald, turf editor of the New York Journal, says all kinds of good things. One man, who REALLY WAS MAKING MONEY ON THE TURF ALREADY, said he had to change a little and make use of the new ideas of our book. They would win MORE LARGELY. "The Art of Winning" has 146 pages, printed with new type, on paper of fine quality, is flexibly bound to black silk cloth, and the price is ONLY FIVE DOLLARS. For five dollars you can learn the SECRET OF UNEERRING TURF SUCCESS. A complete descriptive circular will be mailed free en request, but it is unnecessary to write for this. JUST SEND US FIVE DOLLARS by registered letter or money order and WE WILL PROMPTLY MAIL THE BOOK AND IF YOU DO NOT FIND IT EXACTLY AS STATED RETURN T AND WE WILL REFUND YOUR MONEY.
